

ICCER Newsletter - April 2026

Recruiting New Members

ICCER is opening their membership to new members. Organizational membership, associate membership, and individual memberships are available. More details about each membership will be posted on ICCER's website soon. You can also reach out to ICCER's administrative team for further details at admin@iccer.ca.

Event – CLIQ's Innovation Summit

ICCER will be co-presenting a workshop on innovation in continuing care at CLIQ's Innovation Partnership Summit on May 4. This is a cross-sector gathering that brings together leaders, innovators, and practitioners from health, social services, academia, industry, and community to explore how partnerships turn bold ideas into measurable impact. For a quick preview of the event, please see the attached agenda. We hope to see you there!

First AGM

ICCER held its first AGM on March 5. This is an exciting step forward as we wrap up our 2023-2025 strategic plan and enter the new fiscal year with a new Board of Directors.

New Executive Team

We offer a sincere thank you to Steve Friesen for his commitment and leadership in his extended term as the Chair. His term as Chair is completed. We also thank Hannah O'Rourke, Gail Kessler, Aileen Wong, and Shanika Donalds for volunteering for the interim officer positions.

The Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer positions were open for nominations. The following positions have been accepted and approved or appointed to the board:

- Chair – Carol Baumgarten
- Vice Chair – Gail Kessler
- Secretary – Aileen Wong/Audrey Sand
- Treasurer – Hannah O'Rourke
- Additional Member – Safiqa Kara
